MINUTES OF BOARD MEETING

The Board met in regular session November 14, 1918, at 8:30 p. m., all members being present. The minutes of the last regular meeting of Novem ber 7th, and of the adjourned meeting of November 9th, 1918, were read. It was ordered that there be added to the minutes of the regular meeting, a copy of the list of property purchased of the City Engineer. With this addition, the minutes were approved.

Requests for permit to hunt within the City limits were received from G. Camargo and George Larkin, both of which were on motion of Trustee Henry granted.

It was ordered that the report of the Health Officer, informally submitted to the committee of the whole be approved by the Board and that in accordance therewith, beginning Sunday morning next, November 17th, 1918, the order preventing the assemblage of citizens in public meetings and gatherings of all kinds in the City of Glendale, be rescinded.

Reports were received from the Treasurer and Tax Collector and placed on file.

The City Manager reported that there are at present in the emergency hospital eight patients, for the care of which two nurses are employed. He reported also that the City Forester has been authorized to employ two extra men for a short time, for the work of trimming the trees along the public streets.

The City Attorney presented a written communication, which was read in reference to the claim of Rev. J. H. Henry for exemption from taxation to the amount of $1000.00 valuation on the ground that he has been engaged in military service of the United States. After quoting the law on the subject, the City Attorney advised that upon the filing by Dr. Henry of another affidavit for exemption, his claim for the same be allowed. On motion it was ordered that the recommendation of the City Attorney be adopted and tht City Assessor instructed to make the allowance requested by Dr. Henry.

The motion of Trustee Shaw was adopted, that when the Board adjourn, it be to meet on next Saturday morning, November 16th, at 8:30 o'clock.

A special committee appointed to draw up resolutions in reference to the resignation of the City Engineer, Ed. M. Lynch, made a report, and on motion of Trustee Shaw it was ordered that the following resolution be adopted by the following roll call, all voting aye, Henry, Jackson, Muhleman, Shaw, Woodberry:

WHEREAS, Edward M. Lynch has faithfully served the City of Glendale as City Engineer for the past ten and one-half years and has now resigned that office to go into the service of our country, as Captain of Engineers;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, that this Board have accepted the resignation of Captain Lynch with regret, and hereby express to him their sincere appreciation of his long, faithful, and capable service to the City of Glendale as its City Engineer; and declare their confidence that he will acquit himself with the same zeal, ability and success and well being in the service to which the voice of duty has called him;

AND, be it further resolved that the Clerk shall enter this resolution in full in the minutes of the Board, and forward a copy thereof to Captain Lynch.

Adjourned.

Alterations are being made at the City Hall in the rooms formerly occupied by City Engineer Lynch, removing certain partitions and providing office quarters for the city manager, the engineer, and the street department. The room which has been used as an office by the city manager will return to its original use as a conference room.

FOOD CONSERVATION

The last gun has been fired, the smoke of battle has cleared away, the racket and din of joy parades is a thing of the past; the future is now before us.

America promised the Allies that they should eat at America's table, and today the German people are asking for food. What is America to do about it?

A year ago it was said, "America can produce food, but we should not be asked to conserve food." We did it, however, by a simple change in our daily routine of menus, we were able to feed millions that otherwise would have starved.

Statistics prove that we are a better people, physically and morally, for having made the change.

Other war activities may cease, but conservation of food must be continued in America until the devastated lands of Europe can produce enough to feed its people.

We can get along very nicely on sugar rations, we have learned to enjoy cornbread and meatless meals, and let us now make a mental inventory and find something else we can save that America may fulfill its promise to the world.

The food pledge campaign will begin in December, when every family in Glendale will be asked to pledge its support of the coservation program made necessary to meet the demands made upon us.

The canning season has closed, and the busy women who have been engaged in issuing sugar permits will now be able to turn their energies into other channels. The local director takes great pride in the large number of permits that have been issued, testifying as it does to the frugality and industry of the Glendale housewife.

To serve the people in this manner has been a pleasure as well as a libral education. The general public has been kind and forbearing; the merchants have been exceedingly courteous. To the committees of ladies who have rendered such valuable assistance I owe my sincere thanks. They have been faithful and loyal helpers; without them it would have been impossible for me to have served in this capacity.

Miss Olin Hutchinson, Mrs. J. E. Wimmer, Mrs. A. S. Chase, Miss Dorothy Dow, May Church, Lucille Parker, Elsie Church, Lois Hatch, Mrs. O. E. Von Oven, J. H.. Jack, H. R. Chappell, H. L. McConnell, A. Cross, A. Brown, F. Chambers, have all given freely of their time.

Mrs. A. A. Barton, who was the first appointee, was assisted by Mrs. Ogg. Mrs. E. V. Brown took charge of the Tropico district.

The women of Glendale could not go to the front, but they have fought bravely every battle that opportunity has offered, and we bespeak for Glendale a prompt and willing response to food pledges.

We have raised billions of dollars to save these people, now let us feed them until they are self-supporting.

MRS. C. E. HUTCHINSON,
Woman Director of Food Conservation for Glendale.

SEVEN WAR WORK RELIEF AGENCIES JOIN IN DRIVE

Recognized Great Organizations Representing All Creeds and Elements Welded Into One.

$170,500,000 IS THE GOAL.

Plan of War Department to Avoid Waste of Energy and Duplication of Effort Enthusiastically Adopted and Unity Is Achieved.

WHAT GENERAL PERSHING NEEDS

"Give me nine men who have a hut and I will have a more effective fighting force than if I had ten men without it."

—General Pershing.

On November 11 the American people will start a one week's drive to raise the largest amount of money ever given outright by any people in the history of the world.

The drive will be a new thing under the sun. For the first time Protestants, Catholics and Jews, forgetting all their differences, will line up shoulder to shoulder, welding their individual organizations together in their common devotion to the boys in the cantonments and over there. This amalgamation of the seven great agencies engaged in war work is one of the fine developments which have been brought about by the war and under the wise guidance of President Wilson.

The seven organizations which together will make this united appeal are the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council and K. of C., the Jewish Welfare Board, the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army. Each of them will need funds this Fall; each had planned a separate campaign for support. Now, acting on the suggestion of the President's letter of September 5, the seven campaigns will be rolled into one. The American people will be spared the burden of seven separate appeals, and the nation will have an opportunity to demonstrate splendidly that men and women of all creeds at home can work together, as men of all creeds over there are fighting and dying together.

Dr. John R. Mott, whom President Wilson has spoken of as one of the ablest and most useful men of his generation, has been selected Director General of the drive. It is interesting to note that Dr. Mott's name was placed in nomination by John G. Agar of the National Catholic War Council and seconded by Mortimer L. Schiff of the Jewish Welfare Board. The general committee having the campaign in charge contains such well known names as Raymond B. Fosdick, Chairman of the Commission on Training Camp Activities; George W. Perkins, Chairman of the Finance Committee of the U. S. Steel Corporation; James F. Phelan of Hornblower and Weeks; Honorable Myron T. Herrick, former ambassador to France; Cleveland H. Dodge, George Gordon Battle, Mrs. Henry P. Davison and Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City Bank.

In every city, county and town the campaign will be in charge of the biggest men of the community.

Together these seven organizations represent a work that is staggering in its proportions. They have more than 15,000 uniformed workers, standing shoulder to shoulder with the boys every step of the way from home to the front line trenches. They operate more than 3,600 buildings and ship 500 tons of supplies to the boys in France every week. Fifteen miles of film set sail for the other side each week under their direction, and the regular weekly attendance of soldiers and sailors at their motion picture shows is more than 2,500,000. The Bibles furnished to the boys since the war broke out would, if piled one on another, make a pile more than twenty miles high.

"Morale," said Napoleon, "is as other factors in war as three to one." By which he meant that one man who is kept contented and happy is better than three men who are discouraged and homesick. It is the business of these seven great agencies to help maintain morale. They are keeping up the fine fighting edge of our boys, and by their ministrations, helping to put added power into our army and navy and so hasten the hour of victory when they will bring our boys home again.

It is predicted by national leaders that this great victory drive will "go over the top" in a larger way than any campaign that has preceded it.

CALIFORNIA LIBERTY FAIR WILL BE OPENED NOVEMBER 21

The California Liberty Fair is to be opened on November 21. The Health Authorities have given the word, and the directors of the Fair have completed plans for a ten days' exposition which is to be second to none ever held in the West. The opening day will be Victory Day, and President Wilson, in a direct wire from Washington, will open the fair gates at ten o'clock in the morning.

There are to be many interesting features in connection with the fair. The soldiers and sailors who expected soon to be on their way to France will be able to participate in a monster peace celebration. The United States Government exhibit is here, and will be displayed in the Armory building, where 12,000 square feet of space has been set aside for the show.

Th live stock show is to be even larger than ever. The fact that none of the other fairs in the West have been held makes this one of the most attractive that could possibly have been held, as none of the attractions are to be removed until the ten days of the exposition are over. There are to be from 2000 to 2500 head of stock on display, and this includes practically every known breed in this country.

The flower show is to be one of the largest ever. There will be at least a quarter of a million blooms, and Mr. S. N. Clark is rushing his plans to completion for this beautiful display of California's flora. The horticultural and agricultural buildings will contain displays of California's best products, and the farm implement exhibit will be one of the wonders of the show.

There will be horse racing every day of the fair, to be concluded with a three days' horse show in which some of the finest animals in the West will be exhibited.

LOCAL HAPPENNINGS

Miss Dorothy Erskine, of Blanche Avenue, is recovering from an attack of the "flu." Miss Helen Erskine writes that she had received her full equipment as a nurse in the service of Uncle Sam, and had also received orders to sail overseas.

Dr. A. O. Conrad is again in his offices over the First National Bank of Glendale. He was sent to Fillmore to take charge of the emergency hospital established there during the "flu" epidemic, which was quite serious in that place.

Warner West, of Gardena Avenue, has returned from San Francisco, having recovered from his experiences with "the flu." A little daughter is now ill with the disease.

Mr. and Mrsh. William Crawford, of South Central Avenue, were last week unexpectedly summoned to the home of Mr. Crawford's parents in Pennsylvania, on account of the death of his father and the serious illness of his mother. They expect to be gone several weeks.

The family of Mr. Edward Weston, on West Park Avenue, are undergoing a series of illnesses. Each of the three children has had a turn, but all are better, and now Mr. Weston is quite ill and not able to leave his bed. It is thought to be a severe cold, and not the influenza, that has invaded the popular artist's home.

Last Sunday being an ideal outing day, many impromptu parties of merry folks spent the day either at the beaches or on the scenic mountain highways. A jolly crowd from West Acacia Avenue, in three automobiles, went over the Ridge Route, enjoying the usual basket picnic dinner in one of the many pretty picnic parks along the way. The participants were: Mr. and Mrs. Hearn Robinson and baby Teddy, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. William Hartwig and Miss Helen Hartwig, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Alexander and Doris, G. E. and Lester Alexander.

Glen Craig, of West Garfield Avenue, spent spent Sunday with his wife and family, having obtained a short leave of absence from San Pedro, where he is a member of Uncle Sam's naval forces.

VICTORY DAY, LIBERTY FAIR OPENING, NOVEMBER 21

Unles the "flu" conditions become worse, it is planned to open the big California Liberty Fair next Thursday, November 21.

The opening day will be known as "Victory Day," and an immense celebration is planned, which will eclipse anything ever before given in the Southland. The Fair will last about ten days, and everyone should plan to attend at least the opening day.

The fund for the purchase of a new flag, which the Press recently announced as being raised at the Roberts & Echols Drug Store, has been completed this week, and the new banner is now in its place. It was found that the fund reached was about six dollars in excess of the necessary amount, and the surplus was given to the Red Cross for the purchase of a new Red Cross flag.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Burke, of Tropico, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Burke, of Perlita Avenue.

Mrs. H. H. Paramore, of Brand Boulevard, Atwater Park, has returned from a short visit to Santa Barbara.

Among the influenza victims reported this week are: Allen Baker, of Brand Boulevard; Lee Hyer and little daughter Hattie, of Gardena Avenue.

Corporal Charles Allen, of the 319th Engineers, has arrived safely overseas. He had a very uneventful voyage over. A day and night of rough sea was not nearly as severe as he has often witnessed at Venice.

Mrs. William Hickman, of Hutchinson, Kansas, spent the week-end with Mrs. H. Augustus, of 203 Los Feliz Road. She also intended to visit friends in Los Angeles before going to San Francisco, where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. Denner Markwith is so much improved from the severe attack of the "flu" that has kept her confined to her bed for several weeks, that she expects to be removed to her home on Walnut Street, from Berkeley Heights, in Edendale, tomorrow.

The home folks of Private Noble Ripley and Sergeant Harry La Fountain are anxiously waiting news of their arrival overseas. Word was received some weeks ago that the boys were on their last lap in the journey to the seat of war, but nothing since that time has been heard from them.

Later—Mrs. Noble Ripley has just received her husband's tag number, which gives her the privilege of forwarding a yuletide package to him.

BERT PHAIR DEAD

Robert (Bert) N. Phair, the popular clerk at the soda fountain of Roberts & Echols' Drug Store, passed away at his home, 407 West Harvard Street, last Saturday morning, November 9, at 5:30 o'clock. Bert, as he was familiarly known to his friends, was taken ill a week before, and took to his bed. Everything that could be done for him by doctors was of no avail, and he passed away.

On Thursday of the week that he died, a baby son came to his home. He leaves a widow and a three-year-old daughter, Julia, besides the baby son. Death was caused by influenza.

Mr. Phair had been with Roberts & Echols for more than three years, and was a valued and well-liked man. He had the happy knack of pleasing friends and customers, and had a host of friends in Glendale.

Owing to his near relatives being taken down with influenza, funeral services were not held until Friday afternoon, November 15, at 1:30 o'clock, at the parlors of Scovern-Letton-Frey Co. The services were private.

Interment was made at Inglewood.

Superintendent Shults announces that he will be in his office in the Intermediate School Building, on Wilson Avenue (Third Street) daily, from 9 a. m. to 3:30 p. m., and will be glad to meet any and all who may wish to consult him.

WAR FUND DRIVE

Glendale people are responding generously to the call for funds for the United War Work, as will be seen by the fact that more than 65 per cent of the quota was raised by voluntary contributions before the work of solicitation was begun,.

It was first planned to have Saturday, Monday and Tuesday as "honor days," but the money began to come in on Friday, and more than four hundred dollars was raised before the drive was officially opened. The money came in on Sunday, also, and on account of the rival attraction of the victory celebration on Monday, it was decided to continue the voluntary contributions one day longer. Thus there were really six "honor days" instead of three, and about twelve hundred names were placed on the "honor roll." The rain on Wednesday made the work slow for that day, but the amount brought in increased the total to approximately $6600.00. Work of solicitation is now under way, and by the time the drive is over, on Monday evening, there is no doubt that Glendale will have done her full part.

He contemplates conducting a gasoline service station, and will do auto repairing also.

As shown by the statements for November 1st, two of Glendale's banks, the First National Bank and the Glendale Savings Bank, which are affiliated institutions, now have combined resources of the amount shown above.

These are two of the substantial business enterprises of Glendale, and all are glad to see them pass the million dollar mark.

BOARD STILL BUSY

Members of the local exemption board, and the clerks in charge are busy completing records and giving out information to anxious inquirers. Provost Marshal General Crowder has issued orders that all questionnaires that have been sent out must be filled out and returned to the board, so that considerable work remains to be done.

A telegram was received Wednesday with instructions to hold up individual inductions till further orders.

PALACE GRAND OPENS SUNDAY

Popular Picture Theatre Will Offer Big New Attractions

Perhaps the happiest man in Glendale today is big, genial "Bob" Jensen, proprietor of the Palace Grand Theatre. After an enforced vacation of five weeks and two days, this house will open tomorrow (Sunday) with a series of new pictures, such as is seldom the lot of one theatre to show. Mr. Jensen has by no means been idle during the time that the house has had to remain closed on account of the influenza epidemic. Nearly every night he has been at the theatre, pre-viewing one after another the big feature pictures that have been produced during the past few weeks, pictures that have never been shown to the public in any theatre. The best of these pictures are the ones that will be shown here in the next few weeks, and you may rest assured that every one he offers will be well worth while.

The first of these big offerings, and, naturally, one of the very best, will be shown on the opening day, tomorrow, Sunday, November 17. It is a brand new attraction, and he assures us that it is the smartest comedy feature of the year. It is entitled, "Come On In." If the world seems all wrong and you want to laugh and feel glad again, "Come On In" to the Palace Grand tomorrow, either for the matinee at 2:30, or for one of the evening shows, which are held at 6:45 and at 8:45. To make the big day just that much bigger, Mr. Jensen has booked for the same program two other comedy attractions, "Lonesome Luke" in "Swing Your Partners" and a great two-reel Mack Sennett comedy entitled "Sleuths.

Forgetting that he was a "tramp," when he saw the girl struggling with her heavy load, he offered to relieve her. Her glance of contempt brought him back to earth. It did more. It reminded him of the days before he had been a tramp, and set him on the road to better things. This is the theme of the great story by Monte M. Ketterjohn, which will be presented on Monday, November 18, with the title "The Source," and featuring Wallace Reid. This, remember, is one that Mr. Jensen has seen, and that he knows you will like. On this date there will also be a Two-Reel L. K. O. comedy called "Nuts and Noodles." Matinee at 2:30 and two evening shows, 7:00 and 8:45.

The second official United States war production, "America's Answer," will be presented here on Tuesday. This is a great picture, in eight parts, every bit of which was taken "over there." "America's Answer" brought about the quick defeat of the Germans, and when you see this picture you will understand how it was done, and why it came about so rapidly when Uncle Sam's work began to be felt. This will be shown at the regular admission prices, with matinee at 2:30, and evening shows at 7:00 and 9:00 o'clock.

DOROTHY GISH
in "Battling Jane"
A Paramount Picture

Another brand new picture will be shown on Wednesday, Tom Moore in "Just for Tonight." It shows how one young man won the girl of his dreams. On this date there will also be a very good comedy, "Shot in the Dumb Waiter. Matinee at 2:30. Evening shows at 7:00 and 8:45.

For Thursday, Rex Beach's great drama of Alaska, "Laughing Bill Hyde," will be presented. This is a picture with lots of humor and will be enjoyed by all. The latest Official Allied War Review will also be shown. As always, there will be the matinee at 2:30, and two evening shows, at 7:00 and 8:45.

For Friday, Mr. Jensen presents a picture which he pronounces a masterpiece. This is "Hell Bent," a big Western classic, featuring Harey Carey. Carey is one of the best horsemen ever on the screen. It shows some of the greatest desert scenes ever pictured. Matinee at 2:30, evening shows at 7:00 and 8:45.

For Saturday, Mr. Jensen has selected a picture of a sort to please the whole family. It is a brand new comedy adventure called "Battling Jane," with Dorothy Gish as the chief character. It's a round of laughter from start to finish. On the same program will be given the Official British War Picture, "Admiral Beatty's Fleet in Action," showing very many thrilling scenes. Also there is "Lonesome Luke" in "Bees in His Bonnet," and a Paramount Pictograph and Cartoon Comedy. Children's matinee at 2:30. Evening Shows at 6:45 and 8:45.

Seven welfare organizations are recognized by the government for service among soldiers, sailors, and the women war workers. President Wilson, September 3, requested these organizations to unite in a drive for funds during the week of November 11-18.

organizations for their work in the coming year amount to 170,500,000, and this is the sum proposed to be raised The proportionment of the fund will be as follows: Y. M. C. A., $100,000,000; Y. W. C. A., $15,000,000; National Catholic War Council (K. of C.) $30,000,00; Jewish Welfare Board, $3,500,000; War Camp Community Service, $15,000,000; American Library Association, $3,500,000; Salvation Army, $3,500,000. Of the total amount, the eight Western States must raise 5 per cent, or $8,525,000.

The Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus, the Jewish Welfare Board and the Salvation Army have huts in every training camp, military post, naval training station and cantonment in this country and overseas. These huts serve a multitude of purposes. They are clubs, theaters, gymnasiums and schools at the varied needs of the enlisted men. From these huts go workers with hot chocolate and coffee, sandwiches and doughnuts, even into the very front-line trenches. In these huts are held the religious services of every creed. Every possible provision is made for the moral and spiritual needs of the soldier, and every possible effort to surround him with the home spirit, so important in keeping up his courage.

The American Library Association supplies all these huts and a multitude of other places with books and magazines for the study and leisure hours of the boys here and overseas, and the War Camp Community service serves and provides entertainment for the soldier when he leaves his military camp and goes to the near-by cities and towns.

The Y. W. C. A. maintains the Hostess Houses at the camps, the hospitality center, and the only one for the women friends and relatives of the boys in training. It has established rest and recreation centers and housing facilities for the women workers in this country and France, and overseas, maintains huts for American nurses and French munition workers. It is to this organization that the Government has entrusted the cares and housing of the American girl telephone and telegraph operators of the Signal Corps in France.

When the American lad enters the army he is welcomed by the workers of all these organizations. They are with him always, in the training camp, on the train when he crosses the continent, at the embarkation port, on the transport crossing the ocean, at the debarkation port, in the encampments overseas, in the towns where he may be billeted, and clear to the front line trenches. The war worker of one of these welfare organizations is always ready to help him in his hour of homesickness and distress. These huts overseas are the nearest thing to home that he knows. They are the evidence that the people back home really care for him.

For the gallant youth of this country who are fighting the greatest war of the world for our safety, nothing is too much to give of comfort or of sustaining cheer.

The United War Work Campaign is your opportunity to show your appreciation of what they are doing for you.

The general plan of the campaign is to allow the first three days for honor subscriptions. In Glendale, these honor subscriptions can be made at 136 North Brand Boulevard. All persons making honor subscriptions without solicitation will receive a special honor badge. At the end of the three days, if the quota has not been reached in this way, the city will be districted and solicitors canvass from house to house.

PEACE TO INCREASE THE FOOD DEMAND

End of War Will Add to Shipments America Must Make

San Francisco, Nov. 11.—The termination of the war will completely change the food situation of the entire world, according to information sent out from Washington by the Food Administration, but the coming of peace will in no wise reduce the obligation for intensive economy.

A statement issued today by the Food Administration for California says:

"The incentive for food saving is no longer found in the appeal of patriotism. Now food becomes a great tranquilizer. It is the appeal of humanity now that must inspire the American people in their campaign of food saving. The end of the war will change the character of the food that this country must export to Europe, but it will certainly increase the total amount of our shipment. The end of the war will release food supplies heretofore unavailable because of the conflict. These are largely in the form of accumulated stocks of wheat and corn. There is a world-wide shortage, however, of food and the shortage in fats and meats, particularly pork products and dairy products is very great. The people of those portions of Europe which have been exhausted by war must now look to America for those necessary foods. There must be a great increase in our food shipments beyond even that vast total that the Food Administration estimated before the end of the war seemed so imminent. The total shipments last year were 11,800,000 tons. Under war conditions we were pledged to ship 17,500,000 tons, and it is estimated that our exports under peace conditions, may exceed this by from five to eight million tons. Rumania, Bulgaria and Turkey are on the verge of famine. There is a serious food shortage in France. Likewise in Italy. If a reign of anarchy is to be avoided, food must be supplied and the people of the United States must do their part. Intensive conservation and food saving along somewhat different lines from those originally outlined, must be the rule of the American people.

"The close study of the food situation by all is necessary. Use those things which are produced nearest you. Avoid the use of articles transported from long distances, because the transportation problem is still with us. Waste nothing. Keep on saving."

WHEAT MAY BE USED FOR FEEDING PURPOSES

An order issued by the Food Administration permits mills, warehouses and grain dealers to sell wheat for feeding use. This ruling therefore rescinds the special license regulations of the food administration which prohibited wheat to be used for any other purpose than milling. The removal of this restriction against the feeding of wheat will be of great benefit to the poultry sections particularly, as well as to the other feeding industries generally.

The prospects of a very largely increased wheat production for next year and other changes in the general situation have made it possible to relax this rule against feeding wheat, which has hitherto been so rigidly enforced.
